OUTLINE OF THE PROGRAM

The Duke of Ed has three levels; Bronze, Silver and Gold. Each of these levels is made up of four Sections: Physical Recreation, Skills, Service and Adventurous Journey. The Gold Award has an additional requirement – a Residential Project. All Participants in The Duke of Ed must be registered with an Award Unit. The Award Unit must approve activity Assessors prior to Participants undertaking any Award activities with them.

Participants design their own program by selecting activities that interest them and then set their goals according to the following minimum requirements (summarised in the table below). - 1. Any young person aged 14 to 25 can become an Award Participant.
  - At Bronze level, if a person is 13 and 9 months, but is part of a peer group where the majority are 14 years or older, then some discretion is given to the Award Unit to allow that young person to start their Bronze Award with the rest of the group
  - A person may commence Silver at 14 and 9 months if they have completed their Bronze Award. In practice, this means that Participants who are given concession to start Bronze or Silver early will need to wait longer to receive their Award
  - Participants who commence their Bronze or Silver Award slightly earlier will need to wait until they meet the minimum age for completion before they can claim their Award.
  - The minimum age for commencing Gold is 16 years. No activity undertaken before a Participant's 16th birthday may be counted towards a Gold Award
  - Please contact your State/Territory Award Operating Authority if you have any questions about age range and commencing The Duke of Ed prior to 14 years of age.

<sup>**</sup>Satisfactory completion of the Adventurous Journey Section includes preparation and training appropriate for the journeys being undertaken and at least one practice journey of a similar nature and duration to the qualifying journey.
